

THE LUMEN CENTER PRESENTS

IN ANOTHER TIME, AT ANY PLACE:

The Stations of the Cross and Scripture

While the Stations are rooted in the Gospel accounts of Jesus' passion and death, they were developed over time to include episodes that are not found in any Gospel account. The purpose of this evening's reflection is to take a brief look at the history of this devotion, to focus on the roots of the Stations in their scriptural context, and to briefly explore the role of imagination in our prayer in order to better understand how we interiorize the Gospel stories and give new expression in our own lives to their meaning.
